The Prophetic Judgment Of Morningstar Ministries, Amen!

"For I have known your works, what you call the prophetic, and I Am displeased with your works of the flesh, worldly ambition, fleshly ways, for I Am not in it with power, says the LORD. For I called you to do My will, and not your own, to accumulate worldly mansions of the flesh, a cathedral of sin before Me is what your church is. For many of your prophets standing before Me I don't recognize, nor do I know in your world of sin and fleshly ambition before Me. For I called you out of the world, and not in, says the LORD, so sell all you have and give the money to My poor, says the LORD, and come and follow Me on the streets, leaving all behind like I did at Nazareth, leaving mother and father and house behind. That I did for three years in Israel, feeling the leading of My Father to do what I did there. For I was a homeless Man there in Israel with My disciples, following the leading of the Spirit, speaking only what the Father said. And that is what is what you must do, forsaking all, and the edifices of sin of what you call Morningstar, to follow Me on the streets of America, doing My will as a homeless man, My son. For rest assured the place will be destroyed by My Hand, and not yours. For if you put your trust in the edifices of man for what you call a ministry, then where will you stand when the end comes? For I would have you to not put your trust in the edifices of man created by sin, but in Me, the Living God. For the Kingdom of God is made up of men and women who forsook all to follow Me, not to build up their own worldly empires of the flesh on Earth. And that is what I call you to do, My son, forsake all to follow Me, the Living God and to not do your own will of empire-building on the Earth. For I have called you to do My will, and not that of your own, My son. For My Word says, 'Not My will, but yours be done,' says the Living LORD of Hosts, your Savior, amen."
